Affirmation of Scholarly Integrity

As an author, I affirm that this submission is a work of original scholarship and that it is not published or submitted in part or in whole to another journal or publication. I have made every effort to properly acknowledge and cite the work of others, including any text generated by artificial intelligence, which I have relied upon in the composition of this submission.

Peer Review and Revision Process

As an author, I understand that if my submission is accepted for review, it will be evaluated by two or more reviewers. I expect that the reviewers may require changes to my submission prior to publication, and I agree to work with the Manuscript Editor to revise my manuscript for publication.

Creative Commons Copyright

As an author, I agree to allow Alpha Chi to publish my finalized manuscript under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0) license. I understand that this is the least restrictive copyright and promotes the free sharing of scholarly work around the world. Others will be able to use my scholarly or creative work to advance their scholarship as long as I am given attribution as the author.

Furthermore, copies of my work can be used for education, research, and commercial purposes without my consent. For more information, visit creativecommons.org.
