Creating Remote Opportunities

Marketing and Communications Manager: They are responsible for creating a newsletter to go out twice a month. This individual should have experience creating professional documents not limiting to imbedding pictures, graphics, video, hyperlinks, use of font, layout, and design. They are, also, to lend guidance to community leaders as they work to communicate with their contingencies. A sample of work is required. Estimated time commitment 4-6 hours a month.

Virtual Activities Director: This individual will be responsible for creating community virtually. Arizona Alpha chapter of Alpha Chi extends across the nation. Not everyone will have access to a community leader, nor engage in activities if they are not virtual. For this reason, the virtual activities director is responsible to research and develop scholarly, social, and service events that can be completed through a virtual network. Fidelity to Alpha Chi's principles are required as well as adherence to GCU's social media policies and club/honor society expectations. All plans must be presented to the president to approve, and all communication must go out through the Marketing and Communications manager in conjunction with community leaders. Estimated time commitment 6-8 hours a month.

Engagement & Outreach Director: This individual is responsible for coordinating events/activities/scholarly engagement at the GCU Campus. They will be required to interface with other clubs on campus and leadership at the university to build a strong presence on campus and in the GCU/Phoenix community. Attendance is expected for most events as well as collection of RSVPs, follow up surveys, and building a cultural community. Estimated time commitment 6-8 hours a month.

Research and Scholarship Director: This individual must have a very strong understanding a research methodology. They will be responsible to seek out research opportunities for other Alpha Chi members to be placed as assistants of research that is ongoing in corporations, non-profits, health care, or in universities. This person must be confident speaking the language of research, reaching out to partner with such organization, interviewing, and prepping interested students. This position will be interviewed for. This individual will report to the advisors of the chapter. Dialog regarding GCU and Alpha Chi must always have high levels of integrity, support the mission of each, and manage the expectations of the agency and the students being connected there. Estimated time commitment 8-10 hours a month.

Scholarship Manager: Alpha Chi offers many scholarships, but there are millions of dollars each year that goes to waste because there are not applicants. This individual is responsible for researching and publishing scholarships available for HealthCare, Business, Education, Hard Sciences, Social Sciences, and Ministry. A record of all scholarships, deadlines, URLs, contact individuals, and application links must be gathered and provided to the Marketing and Communication Manager. A monthly composition must be provided to the honor society advisors. It is expected that 20-30 scholarships will be provided with half pertaining to graduate students. They must have deadlines in the next 4 months and currently be accepting applications. Estimated time commitment 4-6 hours a month.
