

Undergraduate, Graduate, or Alumni

Judge's Legible Signature: _____

Presenter Name: _____

Title of Presentation: _____

The alternate scoring rubric for Artistic and Creative Presentations is on the BACK of this form.

Rate the presentation in the following areas from 1 (the lowest score) to 10 (the highest) points each:

Focus & organization of presentation (Clarity, logical flow) _____

Depth & complexity of treatment (Thoroughness, completeness, citation quality) _____

*Use of audio-visuals (Appropriateness, visual appeal, creativeness)
OR Poster design (Figures, tables, images, visual appeal, ease of reading) _____

Engagement with audience (Voice, professional appearance, eye contact) _____

Ability to answer questions (Clarity and depth of response) _____

Contribution to scholarship in the field (Degree of originality) _____

Total points out of 60 _____

* For poster presentations, score "Poster design" in place of "Use of audio-visuals" above. If no visuals are used, the "Engagement with audience" category must be scored on a 20-point scale (instead of 10) so the possible point total remains 60.

This box is for comments you'd like shared anonymously with the presenter. Please write legibly.

Artistic / Creative Presentation Scoring Rubric

Instructions: May be used for musical and dramatic performances (whether of original material or not), original visual art exhibits, and readings of original creative writing. Some presentations in art and music may involve both academic work and performance skills; in such cases, the judges should confer and agree on which scoring system to use.

Rate the presentation in the following areas from 1 (the lowest score) to 10 (the highest) points each:

Complexity / level of difficulty _____

Creativity / originality (of approach, interpretation, design/execution) _____

Technique (excellence of execution in artistic work or musical performance) _____

Presentation skills (speaking skills/appropriate concert behavior) _____

Overall impression / emotional impact _____

Ability to answer questions (Clarity and depth of response) _____

Total points out of 60 _____

This box is for comments you'd like shared anonymously with the presenter. Please write legibly.