PRESS RELEASE

Alpha Chi Chapter Sponsors Honored for Service

Little Rock, Ark.—Several collegiate chapter advisors were formally recognized for their service during the Alpha Chi National Convention on April 10, 2021. Alpha Chi has profound appreciation for the dedication and invaluable service of these chapter advisors who are committed to making scholarship effective for good.

Sarah Pivonka, a Texas Iota chapter assistant sponsor at Texas State University received her 10-year service pin. Dr. Jacquelyn Kegley, California Iota Chapter Sponsor and Region VII Secretary-Treasurer was honored for her 20th anniversary of service with the Society. And finally, Dr. Kenneth LaSota, Pennsylvania Epsilon Chapter Sponsor and Region VI Secretary-Treasurer was honored with a pin commemorating 30 years of service. These recipients will receive their commemorative jewelry by mail.

Alpha Chi's seven regional executive committees are given the opportunity each spring to nominate deserving individuals for Alpha Chi's Distinguished Service Awards. Receiving a Distinguished Service Award were Sarah Pivonka, Texas State University, Region I; Dr. Sean Butler, University of Texas at Tyler, Region II; Dr. Bob Mahan, Milligan College, Region III; Dr. Robert Anzalone, Franklin-Pierce University, Region VI; and Dr. Graziana Ramsden, Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts, Region VI. Ms. Pivonka and Dr. Butler were present at the convention and surprised to be honored to receive the award for which their regions nominated them.

Alpha Chi National College Honor Society invites to membership juniors, seniors, and graduate students from all disciplines in the top ten percent of their classes. Active on nearly 300 campuses nationwide, chapters induct approximately 10,000 students annually. Since the Society's founding in 1922, Alpha Chi members charged with upholding the tenets of Truth and Character have dedicated themselves to "making scholarship effective for good." Alpha Chi is a member in good standing of the Association of College Honor Societies, the only national accrediting body for collegiate honor societies.
