National Convention Minutes

1. The National Convention of Alpha Chi met April 6-8, 2017, at the Galt House Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky, with the theme of Transcending Boundaries. Chapter delegations began checking in starting at 3 p.m., Thursday, April 6. A convention kickoff session for student delegates was held at 6:15 p.m. At this session, the National Council’s student representatives from the regions welcomed student delegates to Louisville and to the convention and facilitated icebreaker activities. A chapter sponsor reception began at 5:30 p.m., at which sponsors mingled with colleagues and national office staff. This was followed at 6 p.m., with a meeting for presentation judges and moderators. During this meeting, Director of Operations Lara Noah reviewed presentation moderating and judging duties and recruited additional moderators and judges, since many sponsors who had planned to fulfill these duties were delayed by inclement weather on their journey to the convention. A total of 80 chapters and 400 attendees were eventually accounted for.

2. The first main event of this convention was a research and creativity poster forum, which was held in the Fountain Room, 7-9 p.m. Delegates perused the posters while enjoying a dinner of savory hors d’oeuvres and miniature desserts. Academic posters in multiple fields, original visual art presentations, and collaborative project posters were on display. Immediately following the forum, a room was reserved for alumni and graduate student members for introductions and networking.

3. Activities for Friday, April 7, began with an optional yoga session at 7 a.m., led by a chapter sponsor volunteer, Dr. Graziana Ramsden of Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts. At 8 a.m., the second session of student presentations (9 concurrent sessions of three or four papers each) was held. Following this session, regional meetings were held from 9:15-10 a.m. These meetings provided opportunities for networking among delegates from the same regions. At odd-numbered regional meetings (Regions I, III, V, and VII) new student representatives to the National Council were elected.

4. At 10:15 a.m., the “AX Honors Session” was held in the Grand Ballroom. During this session, Ms. Noah presented chapter sponsors with service pins for reaching special milestones of service. Those receiving 10-year recognition pins this year were: Ms. Misti Reisman, Tarleton State University; Dr. Craig Rogers, Campbellsville University and National Council member; and Dr. Diane Taylor, Tarleton State University. Receiving 15-year pins this year were: Dr. James Koukl, University of Texas at Tyler; Dr. Allan Nelson, Tarleton State University; Ms. Michelle Putnam, Lipscomb University; and Dr. Beth Riggs, Tarleton State University. Receiving her 25-year service pin this year was Dr. Read Diket, William Carey University. Receiving her 30-year service pin this year was Ms. Suzanne Pundt, University of Texas at Tyler and National Council member. Receiving her 35-year service pin this year was Ms. Ruby Blair, Benedict College. Following the recognition of these sponsors, Alpha Chi’s 2017 Distinguished Alumni Award was presented to Dr. Ed Madden. Dr. Madden was inducted into the Arkansas Eta chapter of Alpha Chi at Harding University. He is a professor of English Language and Literature and Director of Women’s and Gender Studies at the University of South Carolina. Dr. Madden is also the Poet Laureate of the city of Columbia, South Carolina. He addressed convention delegates and read several poems from Ark, his most recent book of poetry.

5. The third session of student presentations (9 concurrent sessions of three or four papers each) was then held from 11:45 a.m. Brown’s Graduation Supplies and Awards Company, official Alpha Chi supplier, displayed Alpha Chi items and convention memorabilia during regular convention hours. Delegates were then sent to enjoy the rest of the day sightseeing in Louisville. At 10 p.m., “Alpha Chi’s Got Talent!” took place in the Fountain Room, where delegates enjoyed a variety of performances.

6. Saturday, April 8, began again at 7 a.m. with Dr. Ramsden leading light yoga. At 8 a.m., delegates fixed their plates at a light breakfast bar to be taken to regional meetings until 8:45. Each region was free to conduct business meetings, if needed, or to use the time for announcing regional scholarship winners, recognizing sponsor service and Star Chapters, or doing informal networking.

7. From 9-10 a.m., a fourth round of student presentations (9 concurrent sessions with three or four papers each) was held. Convention delegates then participated in one-hour chapter-strengthening sessions led by various chapters and Council members (leading chapters receiving a $100 stipend). Since the chapter at Long Island University, Brooklyn, was unable to attend due to weather delays, there were only 9 concurrent sessions, all on different topics designed to help chapters function more effectively.

8. Delegates then attended the fifth round of student presentations from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., which consisted of 9 concurrent sessions of three or four papers each. A lunch break was held from 12:30-1:30 p.m., which was followed by the sixth session of student presentations from 2:30 p.m. This session consisted of 9 sections of four or five papers each. The seventh and final session of student presentations was held from 3:30-4:30 p.m. This session consisted of 9 sections of two to four papers each.

9. The final event of the 2017 convention was the Transcending Boundaries Gala, held from 5:30 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the Galt House. Dr. David Jones, National Council president, welcomed delegates to the gala. As the beautifully plated dinner began, Jace Bradshaw, student representative from Region II, presented the children’s books and monetary donations received for this year’s national service project to Julie Krueer of Norton Children’s Hospital of Louisville. Norton’s participates in a national initiative called “Reach Out and Read,” which provides each child from birth to 5 years old with a new book as part of the well-child check-up at Norton’s pediatric facilities. Mr. Bradshaw announced that over 700 books and nearly $1,000 was collected.

10. Following dinner, Dr. Trisha Yarbrough, executive director of Alpha Chi, introduced the convention’s keynote speaker, writer, professor, and researcher Dr. John Janovy. Dr. Janovy’s talk “Life Lessons from a Parasite,” merged biological truths from his 40-year career as a parasitologist at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, with social and cultural truths by analogy and metaphor. Janovy incorporated humor, frequent allusions to popular culture, and scientific evidence to underscore his key ideas.

11. Following a 15-minute intermission, National Council At-Large Member Bill Potter presented certificates of recognition to the outgoing student representatives to the National Council: Katy Maddux (Region I), Sarah Geil (Region III), Emily Mancos (Region V), and Robyn Musick (Region VII, who was unable to attend). Dr. Craig Rogers, National Council member, then called forward newly elected National Council student representatives Ana Yanes-Garcia (Region I), Kayla Avery (Region III), Elliot Collins (Region V), and Zach Merhavy (Region VII).
12. Dr. Craig Rogers of the National Council then presented five individuals with the Distinguished Service Award, which is a marble clock engraved with an Alpha Chi plate. This award recognizes individuals whose service to Alpha Chi has been the most influential. The majority of the recipients are current or very recent faculty sponsors recommended by their regional officers or by the National Council. 15. Dr. Yarbrough came forward to announce the Nationwide Insurance Collaborative Student Research Prize winner but first explained that the collaborative research competition involves teams from Alpha Chi chapters that must include up to five researchers representing at least three separate disciplines. The focus of the 2016-17 competition was the convention theme of Transcending Boundaries. Three teams entered this year’s competition, but the team from the University of North Texas won the competition. The title of their project was “Cultural Attitudes Affecting Retention and Literacy Among Students in Denton: Methods of Transcending Boundaries to Effect Change.” Team members were Rosana Adams, Rachel Duffy, Sonia Gomez, Giselle Greenidge, and Brandi Webster. This team will receive a check for $5,000 to be divided as the team and chapter see fit.

16. Dr. Yarbrough then awarded two faculty members with an Outstanding Chapter Sponsor Award: Dr. Lynda Leavitt, sponsor of the Alpha Chi chapter at Lindenwood University, and Dr. Kate Stewart, sponsor of the chapter at University of Arkansas at Monticello. Each recipient received a $200 cash award to use as they wish.

17. President Jones recognized Long Island University, Brooklyn (in absentia), as the recipient of last year’s President’s Cup. He then presented the esteemed 2017 President’s Cup for Outstanding Chapter to the Texas Psi chapter from Abilene Christian University which had present several student delegates and Drs. Jennifer Huddleston and Mikee Delony to accept the award. In addition to a newly-designed trophy each Outstanding Chapter will get to keep, Texas Psi chapter will also receive a $200 honorarium.

18. Ms. Noah concluded the convention with a hearty dose of appreciation for this year’s exceptional group of moderators and judges, the two memorable keynote speakers, the intrepid student presenters, those in Galt House convention services, and to Katie Holmes and the fearless convention staff. Lara invited delegates to send to the national office their suggestions for future speakers, convention sites, and events for future conventions. After encouraging everyone to attend the next national convention in Portland, Oregon April 5-7, 2018, at the Hilton Portland Downtown, she wished everyone safe and weather-friendly travels home.

Respectfully submitted,
Lori L. Mills
National Council Secretary
2017 National Council Meeting Minutes

1. Welcome and Introductions. Dr. David Jones, president of the National Council, convened the first plenary of the Alpha Chi National Council at 8:34 a.m., Thursday, April 6, 2017, in the Willow Room at the Galt House Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky. Dr. Jones welcomed everyone to Louisville and to the hotel. Many members had travel challenges because of flights being delayed and/or cancelled due to inclement weather and thus some members were not present for this plenary session. Members present were: David Jones, Craig Rogers, Jace Bradshaw, Robert Carpenter, Bonita Cade, Emily Mancos, Katy Maddux, Karl Havlak, Bob Mahan, Ken LaSota, Lori Mills, Bill Potter, Teddi Deka, June Hobbs, Suzi Pundt, and Tim Lindblom. National office staff present were Trisha Yarbrough, Lara Noah, and Katie Holmes. Council members not present were Bill Clemente, Tonia Compton, Sarah Geil, and Ethan Veit.

2. Approval of Agenda. The Membership Committee report was moved from Plenary 3 to Plenary 2. Dr. LaSota moved to approve the agenda with that one change. Dr. Mahan seconded. Motion passed.

3. President’s Report. Dr. Jones thanked National Council members for their service. He also thanked the national office staff for their fabulous work and thanked Dr. Yarbrough for her work as executive director.
   A. Dr. Jones reported that the Executive Committee had met in June 2016 in Louisville at the Galt House. In conjunction with that meeting, a Strategic Planning Committee meeting was held and a new Strategic Plan developed and approved by the Council. A detailed job description for the Executive Director was developed and approved. A professional marketing plan for Alpha Chi was approved and reported on by VisionPoint Marketing later in the meeting.
   B. Two new chapters were put into place this year: including Cotey College in Missouri and Blue Mountain College in Mississippi.
   C. Since the last convention, the National Office moved to a new, freestanding location (not on the campus of Harding University) in Searcy, Arkansas. The tentative plan is to move the national headquarters to Little Rock in 2018.
   D. Increased amounts for scholarships and fellowships were approved for awards given at this convention: two Pryor Fellowships at $6,000 and $4,000; two Sledge Fellowships at $4,000 each, ten Benedict Fellowships at $3,000 each; two Gaston Scholarships at $3,000 each; and ten Nolle Scholarships at $2,000 each.
   E. Dr. Jones also noted that Auletheia, Alpha Chi’s new online, peer-reviewed undergraduate journal is up and running, doing well, and has been a good development for Alpha Chi.
   F. Dr. Jones reminded each committee that they should be operating on a year-round basis. All committees should be keeping minutes so that committee chairs can bring their reports to the annual Council meeting. Jones especially thanked Bill Potter, Karl Havlak, and Ken LaSota for their active work throughout the year in chairing their committees.
   G. Dr. Jones also stated that, even though the Council voted to maintain regional identities, it needs to continue discussing the continuing roles and functions of the seven regions.
   H. He reported that Region VII was currently without a Secretary-Treasurer, as Dr. Pam Johnston had resigned about three weeks ago. Also, the student representative for Region VII was unable to attend this convention. Dr. Yarbrough announced her intention to attend the Region VII meeting at this convention to discuss how to proceed.
   I. While membership numbers increased a bit from last year, overall, acceptances are static. This was given as the reason Alpha Chi proceeded with hiring a professional marketing company—moving toward a large fundraising campaign as we look forward to Alpha Chi’s centennial anniversary in 2022.
   J. Dr. Jones remarked that board members need to be trained in proper board procedures as they are elected. He stated that Dr. Yarbrough is aware of this and is working to make sure that new members receive from us that training as close to their election as possible.

Mr. Potter moved to accept the president’s report. Mr. Carpenter seconded. Motion passed.

4. Preliminary Convention Committee Report. Given that Dr. Bill Clemente, committee chair, would not be attending the convention due to extensive travel difficulties, Lara Noah gave a preliminary report. Children’s books have been collected for the national service project this year. However, the committee will need to find an organization in Louisville to which the donated books can be given. Unfortunately, an off-site, hands-on service event was not planned in time and will not happen this year.
   Ms. Noah reported there were several delegations whose travel has been delayed and perhaps cancelled due to bad weather and delays at several major airports. This will cause difficulties with judges, moderators, and presenters not arriving in time for their duties and presentations. The Council discussed how to handle judging posters when many poster presenters would not be here in time. Mr. Carpenter moved to go forward with judging tonight with those presenters who are here; Ms. Maddux seconded; motion passed.
   A. Two new chapters were put into place this year: including Cotey College in Missouri and Blue Mountain College in Mississippi.

5. VisionPoint Marketing Presentation. A team from VisionPoint Marketing, Matt Walters and Micaiah Norby, then presented their extensive marketing plan the Council approved electronically during the last year. They began by distributing a document presenting Alpha Chi’s new Brand Pillars, the first primary content VisionPoint has delivered. The next major deliverable will be an Alpha Chi viewbook, followed by videos and content to be generated from this convention.

As a review, Matt presented the three goals that VisionPoint identified for Alpha Chi: 1) to grow the membership of Alpha Chi. The year 2012 was the high-water mark, with three subsequent years of declines in acceptances. There was a small increase in 2015-16, but their goal would be to see a 4.5% year over year increase for the next five years; 2) to improve national penetration by reactivating inactive chapters and reaching new campuses; and 3) to increase national awareness of Alpha Chi.

VisionPoint also identified the following gaps: 1) the lack of a resonant brand message; 2) the lack of a compelling central platform for presenting Alpha Chi externally; and 3) an overly heavy reliance on the voluntary participation of chapter sponsors.

To achieve the aforementioned goals and address the identified gaps, VisionPoint presented the following strategies: 1) turning the value of Alpha Chi into a clear message; 2) structuring an invitation that makes a greater impression since that is the only guaranteed touch point that Alpha Chi has with students; 3) using the national convention as a catalyst for content creation, among other things, as it is the largest differentiator between Alpha Chi and other honor societies; and 4) testing new-chapter targeting on established but inactive chapters first.

Mr. Walters presented their three-tiered approach. The first tier, which is the focus right now, includes: 1) developing marketing foundations with a number of different tactical deliverables, including documents like the Brand Pillars; 2) redesigning the public-facing website which has remained basically unchanged since 2009; and 3) shaping a brand-driven content strategy, Tier Two would be about reaching new members to earn new student membership. Part of this would be about exciting students with the possibility of being involved in Alpha Chi. The third tier will focus on new chapter growth with the new chapter sponsor being the initial focus.

Mr. Walters thanked Alpha Chi for their partnership and encouraged Council members to see this as a paradigm shift. He pointed to the Brand Pillars as the essential elements that Alpha Chi delivers. These include Scholarship for Good; Invested in Research and Creativity; Mentorship, Growth, and Preparation; Chapter-Driven, Student-Led; Cultivating Diversity; and Excellence and Integrity. Dr. Yarbrough then stated that everything we do in Alpha Chi should be linked back to one of these pillars.

Everything in Tier One of the marketing plan is already finished or underway. Tiers Two and Three will be finished or underway by the end of the fall semester. The VisionPoint marketing team will be in attendance throughout this convention and will get information they can use to continue to inform the marketing plan.

6. Committees. The work of the National Council is expedited through preliminary deliberations conducted by small groups of Council members. These groups, some of which are constitutional and some of which are created as needed, have already been announced and have been doing their work throughout the year. They are reported here for the record. Chairpersons are indicated by asterisks. Executive Committee members are often appointed as ex-officio, non-voting liaisons to certain committees.

7. Plenary One Adjourned. Mr. Potter moved to adjourn. Mr. Carpenter seconded. Motion passed. Plenary One adjourned at 10 a.m.

8. National Council Dinner. The National Council convened for dinner at Vincenzo’s around the corner from the hotel from 5 to 7:30 p.m. on Friday, April 7. Outgoing Council members as well as newly-elected members attended the dinner, as well as current members. Other guests included Dr. Ed Madden, 2017 Distinguished Alumnus, and his husband Bert, Dr. Howard Smolleck, Alpha Chi Archivist, and his wife Ruth, and Matt and Micaiah of VisionPoint. At the end of this dinner, Dr. Jones thanked at-large faculty members Dr. Greg Clemons and Dr. Tim Lindblom, who were concluding their terms of service.

9. Plenary Two begins with Introductions and Installation of New Council Members. After the Council left the restaurant and returned to the Galt House, National Council Plenary Two convened at 7:32 p.m., in the Willow Room. Dr. Jones then installed the following new and re-elected members of the National Council: Dr. Bonita Cade (Roger Williams University), at-large faculty member; Dr. David Jones (Westminster College in Missouri), at-large faculty member; Dr. Agashi Nwogbaga (West Liberty University), at-large faculty member, Dr. Kathi Vosevich (Shorter University), at-large faculty member; Dr. Jacquelyn Kegley (California State University-Bakersfield), Region VII secretary-treasurer; Ana Yanes-Garcia (Region I Student Representative, Texas State University), Kayla Avery (Region III Student Representative, Shorter University), Elliot Collins (Region V Student Representative, West Liberty University), and Zach Merhavy (Region VII Student Representative, Grand Canyon University). Dr. Jones then asked all individuals to introduce themselves. The new members received a hearty round of applause.
10. Publications Committee (ad hoc) Report. Given that Dr. Tim Lindblom has chaired this committee but is no longer on the National Council, this report was moved to the beginning of Plenary Two so that Dr. Lindblom would not have to return to a later meeting. Dr. Tim Lindblom, outgoing member of the National Council and ongoing editor of Aletheia, reported on progress with Aletheia. He stated that he and the national office staff have been working well together electronically. He has gradually built a manuscript editor database. One issue that has arisen is nonresponsive authors, such that sometimes authors do not respond once reviewers suggest revisions to their manuscripts. Thus, Dr. Lindblom has added language to a checklist for authors that asks the authors to agree to revise their manuscripts once they have been submitted for review. The two other Alpha Chi publications are the Proceedings Recorder and the Newsletter, which are primarily produced by Melinda Hicks in the National Office. Mr. Potter moved to accept the report. Mr. Carpenter seconded. Motion passed.

11. Old Business: Dr. Jones stated the need to discuss further the issue of housing grants. Ms. Noah reported that the Galt House’s general manager had agreed to waive the cancellation fee for hotel room charges for chapters who were unable to attend or who arrived after the night they had intended to arrive. The remaining question was whether full housing grants should be given to those chapters who were late or who did not attend. Dr. Mills moved that we give full housing grants to those chapters who ultimately attended the convention, meaning that we award travel grants for the full number of nights they intended to stay, even if they were late. Dr. LaSota seconded. Motion passed.

12. Executive Director’s Report. Dr. Yarbrough had emailed a SWOT analysis to Council members, and she also distributed a hard copy during the plenary.

A. Strengths included: 1) Alpha Chi’s decision to select VisionPoint Marketing, a professional marketing firm; 2) a rebound in membership in 2016; 3) a positive response to an initiative to raise visibility with “Integrity Matters” wristbands; 4) Alpha Chi’s connection with the Association of College Honor Societies; 5) a new presence at the National Collegiate Honors Conference; and 6) dedicated sponsors working in a climate that supports academic excellence.

B. Weaknesses included: 1) the proportion of chapters that do nothing more than induct students; 2) a lack of robust growth; 3) the difficulty of attracting the attention of students at our largest schools; and 4) minimal chapter life at largely online campuses.

C. Opportunities included: 1) collaboration with honors programs and other student honor societies; 2) honing communication strategies for college and university administrators; 3) identifying trends in higher education with the goal of improving strategies for member and institutional expansion; 4) publicizing chapter and member achievements via all social media outlets; 5) staying ahead of the curve of technological advances; and 6) identifying funding sources for scholarships and our centennial celebration.

D. Threats included: 1) the trend toward alternative methods to achieve competence in a field away from a four-year degree at a residential, brick and mortar campus continues to erode our base; 2) the declining pool of traditional students for the foreseeable future; and 3) the trend toward smaller college and university closings; 4) the proliferation of bogus honor societies; and 5) the unwillingness of many full-time faculty members to volunteer for the role of chapter sponsor, given that administrators may value research and teaching more than any involvement in a student organization.

Council members discussed whether there could be significant membership growth if our current chapters would all induct graduate students. Some members spoke in favor of encouraging more chapters to induct graduate members, since graduate members seem to very much appreciate this honor, given that there are few other general honor societies inducting graduate members. Other members stated that they themselves do not want to induct graduate members given that there is so much grade inflation that many graduate students have a 4.0 grade point average. The consensus is that the Membership Committee will discuss further issues surrounding graduate membership. Dr. Mahan moved to accept the report. Dr. Nwogbaga seconded. Motion passed.

13. Director of Operations Report. Ms. Noah described for the new National Council members the basic duties for which each of the four national office staff were responsible. She also explained that the national office moved, after much preparation and deliberation, from Harding University to a stand-alone office lease in Searcy. She discussed the plan to move Alpha Chi’s headquarters to the Little Rock area in the summer of 2018. Mr. Potter moved to accept the report; Mr. Carpenter seconded. Motion passed.

14. Archivist’s Report. There was no formal archivist’s report this year; Dr. Smolleck inspects the archives in alternate years, and 2016 was not a year for him to visit. However, he continues being concerned that chapters send him significant materials, especially in anticipation of Alpha Chi’s centennial in 2022. The guidelines for sending materials to the archives is on the Alpha Chi website. The Archivist continues to receive a travel grant of $250 to attend each national convention.

15. Regional Secretary-Treasurers’ Reports. Regional Secretary-Treasurers reported on the events occurring in their regions and at the regional meetings. Their reports will appear in the minutes of the business meeting of each region. Dr. LaSota moved to accept these reports. Mr. Potter seconded. Motion passed.

16. Scholarship Committee Report. Dr. Mills reported that the Scholarship Committee met on Tuesday, April 4, and Wednesday, April 5, to continue reviewing the applications of 63 Gaston/Nolle Scholarship, 72 Sledge/Benedict Fellowship, and 30 Pryor Fellowship applicants. Since scholarship entries are now submitted electronically, the Committee begins reading the submissions before arriving at the convention. Committee members then finish reading and confer with other Committee members to arrive at a consensus regarding the winners in their category.

The recipients of the $3,000 Edwin W. Gaston Scholarship for full-time undergraduate study in the fall of 2017 are Sierra Bailey from Wayland Baptist University and Christian Jessup from Gardner-Webb University. The recipients of the $2,000 Alfred H. Nolle Scholarship for full-time undergraduate study in the fall of 2017 are (alphabetically): Marisa Ayers, Lyon College; Audra Bahr, Texas Lutheran University; Jaspal Brar, University of the Sciences; Damian Di Florio, Robert Morris University; Laura Jardine, Oklahoma City University; Valerie Kocsis, Abilene Christian University; Kenny Martin, Southern Methodist University; R. Christian Phillips, Capital University; Hannah Ray, Gardner-Webb University; and Teresa Rodriguez, The College at Brockport - SUNY.
Alternates for the Nolle Scholarship were (in order): (1) Piper Cleveland, Belmont University; (2) Caleb Nehls, The University of Texas at Tyler; (3) Samantha Camilletti, Christopher Newport University; (4) Dustin Conni, Hawai‘i Pacific University; and (5) Shane Powell, West Liberty University.

The recipients of the $4,000 Robert W. Sledge Fellowship full-time graduate or professional study in the fall of 2017 were Michael McLawhorn, Mars Hill University and Sofia Sedergren, Greensboro College. The recipients of the $3,000 H.Y. Benedict Fellowship for full-time graduate or professional study in the fall of 2017 were (alphabetically): Victoria Morgan Bingham, Florida College; Jace Bradshaw, Ouachita Baptist University; Ariana Brice, Bridgewater College; Daniel Feivor, Bridgewater College; Madison Feldewerth, Westminster College (MO); Allison Johnson, Texas A&M University: Texarkana; Tim Lindgren, Westminster College (UT); Gabrielle Mistretta, Columbia College; Tina Somchit, Waldorf University; and Hope Woods, Lyon College.

Alternates for the Benedict Fellowship were (in order): (1) Melanie Smith, Greensboro College; (2) Clayton Brady, The College at Brockport – SUNY; (3) Serena Barbieri, Sam Houston State University; (4) Alycia Gilbert, Belmont University; and (5) Ashley Duke, Goldey-Beacom College.

The recipient of the $6,000 Joseph E. Pryor Fellowship for a student in a doctoral program who has completed at least two years of study was: Chunhong (Chloe) Zhao, who is a student inducted at Texas State University. The alternate was Mael LeNoc, a student inducted at Texas State University. The recipient of the $4,000 Joseph E. Pryor Fellowship for a student in the first or second year of graduate study was Whitni Redman, who is a student at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center and was inducted at Peru State College. The alternate was Neha Bang, who is a student at Kansas City University of Medicine/Biosciences and was inducted at Missouri Southern State University. Dr. LaSota moved to accept the report; Mr. Potter seconded. Motion passed.

17. Convention Presentation Prizes. Ms. Noah expressed concern that it may be difficult to determine presentation prize winners, given that there were now different judging groups within the same discipline. She asked for volunteers to come to AX Central Saturday afternoon to help make final determinations and serve as tiebreakers. Several Council members volunteered to assist with this.

18. Audit and Finance Committee Report. The Audit & Finance Committee reviewed the report of the auditing firm Miller and Rose, Certified Public Accountants, and accepted their report of the 2016 records. The Committee had asked Ms. Noah after the 2016 National Council meeting to solicit bids for firms to audit the financial statements for the next year. With the move of the national office taking place, this effort had been delayed. Ms. Noah will solicit bids in 2017. The Audit & Finance Committee will then review the bids and choose a firm to conduct the audit of 2017 records.

An additional expense that Alpha Chi has taken on since June 1, 2016, is the monthly expenses of having a stand-alone national office. Those monthly expenses total approximately $2,000 per month, including rent, phone, internet, utilities, etc. An additional significant expense Alpha Chi incurred in 2016 is contracting with VisionPoint Marketing. In 2016, the cost for the marketing analysis was $73,023. The signed contract with VisionPoint for 2017 totaled $197,000, divided into 12 monthly payments. The amount for year three has yet to be determined but will be significantly less than it was in 2017.

Ms. Noah withdrew from endowment funds the allowable amounts for 2014 and 2015 (approximately $180,000 total) in 2016 to help pay for VisionPoint marketing and convention costs. The Louisville convention will likely cost somewhat less than the most recent conventions, partly due to contracting free meeting space wi-fi and lower audio-visual and food prices.

Alpha Chi earned between 7% and 8% on the endowment in 2016. The Committee suggests staying with the current investment strategy for the time being.

Ms. Noah has already started investigating properties in the Little Rock, Arkansas area, planning for a potential move of the national office in June 2018. The national office staff may use a real estate agent to locate suitable properties in the Little Rock area. $10,000 was not set aside for the national office contingency fund in 2016. This fund was established several years ago to plan for the eventual move of the national office. The Committee suggested not putting aside any additional money right now, so that it can stay in the endowment and earn interest. The account balance is currently $40,000.

Dr. Yarbrough asked for guidance from the Committee regarding the executive director’s discretionary fund. This money has been used to fund her travel to chapters. However, she does travel to represent Alpha Chi at other honors organization events and didn’t know if the costs of attending those events were included as part of these discretionary expenses. The Audit & Finance Committee moved that Dr. Yarbrough may spend up to $10,000 per year for chapter-related travel and that this included such representation at other honors events.

In the summer of 2017, the Committee will make a recommendation regarding 2018 travel grants and scholarship amounts for regions whose treasuries have been depleted.

Mr. Potter moved to accept the report. Dr. Mahan seconded. Motion passed.

19. Awards and Honors Committee Report. Dr. Ken LaSota, chair of this committee, moved that the five candidates who were nominated for honorary membership during the first quarter of 2017 be accepted. These individuals were: Dr. Jeffrey Carlson, Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education, Dominican University, Illinois Kappa; Dr. James E. Donelan, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, Franklin Pierce University, New Hampshire Zeta; Dr. Donald J. Farish, President, Roger Williams University, Rhode Island Alpha; Dr. Donald Mroz, President, Post University, Connecticut Gamma; and Dr. Dwuan Warmack, President, Harris-Stowe State University, Missouri Zeta.

For the permanent record, the Committee listed the following individuals already granted honorary membership since the 2016 national convention: Dr. Sherilyn Emberton, President, Huntington University; Dr. Gwenda Greene, Professor of English, Benedict College; Dr. Vernon Harper, Jr., Associate VPAA, California State University, Bakersfield; Dr. Don Jackson, President, Hastings College; Dr. Donald Olson, Professor of Physics, Texas State University; Dr. Michele O. Ramirez, Prof. of Psychology & Asst. Dean of Foundational Learning, Pine Manor College; Dr. Scott Rich, President, Sterling College; Dr. Tracy Shilcutt, Professor of History and Associate Dean, Honors College, Abilene Christian University; and Dr. Richard Wilkens, Provost, Dowling College.
The Committee recommended awarding the 2017 President’s Cup to Abilene Christian University, Texas Psi, for its impressive application package and meeting of the criteria. The award, to be kept secret until Saturday, will be announced at the final gala, with Dr. Jones to present the President’s Cup itself. A $200 honorarium will be sent separately.

Lastly, the Committee recommended John S. Pistole, J.D., for the 2018 Distinguished Alumni Award. Pistole was inducted into the Indiana Alpha chapter in 1977, and currently serves as that college’s president. Before becoming the Anderson University president, he served as Administrator of the Transportation Security Administration (TSA). Before accepting that position, he served as Deputy Director for the FBI. If approved, the national office will communicate with the chapter and Dr. Pistole to arrange his speaking at the 2018 convention in Portland.

The Committee moved the Council accept its recommendations. Motion passed.

20. Centennial Planning Committee (ad hoc) Report. Dr. Jones stated that this report will be given in Plenary Three, since members have not yet been able to assemble for their committee meeting at this convention.

21. Chapter Development Committee. Mr. Potter reported that the Committee had two conference calls in September 2016 to develop a list of topics for Chapter-Strengthening Sessions and brainstorm chapters who could be asked to lead sessions. After that, the Committee moved to working by email, due to the difficulty in finding a common available time for Committee members to meet via conference call. Committee members recruited several chapters to facilitate chapter-strengthening sessions. Members continued to work throughout the year with these chapters to prepare these sessions.

The Committee also worked on training materials for chapter sponsors and student chapter officers. The Committee plans to finish these materials by the end of the academic year so they can be made available to all sponsors and members.

The Committee critiqued its work for the year and proposed sending out a call to all chapter sponsors to facilitate chapter-strengthening sessions, and then following this call quickly with a recruitment effort. The Committee will also consider whether they are offering too many different sessions and whether sessions might have a greater impact if there were fewer sessions. Dr. Cade moved to accept the report; Dr. LaSota seconded. Motion passed.

22. Constitution Committee (ad hoc) Report. There was no chair of the committee at this convention, but Mr. Potter and Ms. Maddux, along with Dr. Yarbrough, looked at the Constitution during their meeting. Mr. Potter reports that the Committee thinks that the Constitution is in good shape overall, but the Bylaws need some revision. The Committee will send out a call for Council members to review the Constitution and Bylaws before the end of September 2017. The Committee will also solicit input from the entire membership of Alpha Chi. The Committee will do a thorough review of both the Constitution and Bylaws, identify necessary changes to the Bylaws, and propose amendments to the National Council in fall 2017. The Committee will also begin drafting any necessary amendments to the Constitution and ask the National Council for feedback. The Committee plans to have Constitutional amendments in final form by the end of January 2018 so they can be voted on by the Council and sent to the membership more than 30 days before the national convention, as required by the Constitution. Mr. Carpenter moved to accept the report; Mr. Bradshaw seconded. Motion passed.

23. Plenary Two Adjournment. Mr. Potter moved to adjourn; Mr. Carpenter seconded. Motion passed. Dr. Jones adjourned Plenary Two at 9:32 p.m.

24. Call to Order for Plenary Three. Dr. Jones called Plenary Three to order at 8:01 a.m. on Sunday, April 9.

25. Membership Committee Report. Dr. Havlak, chair of this Committee, brought three motions on behalf of the Committee:

A) Students who are awarded regional and/or national scholarships from Alpha Chi will receive a certificate. It is the responsibility of the regional secretary-treasurers to send information about regional scholarships and winners to the national office; B) Each chapter will be allowed to nominate a member of the year from their chapter. The chapter sponsor will send the student’s name and rationale to the national office, who will issue a certificate. After the suggestion from Ms. Noah, Dr. Cade made a friendly amendment that this award be named the Dr. Patricia Williams Award for Chapter Member of the Year; C) No new for-profit institutions will be granted membership in Alpha Chi. This follows a recent related decision by the Association of College Honor Societies, of which Alpha Chi is a member. Existing chapters at for-profit institutions will be allowed to continue membership if they remain in good standing.

The Committee wants to study the issue of inducting graduate students further. While Alpha Chi is both an undergraduate and graduate honor society and encourages chapters to induct graduate students, many existing chapters choose not to induct graduate students.

The Committee also considered online universities and how to encourage those chapters to stay active. The Committee discussed giving sponsors a checklist of expected activities. Also, they discussed having a probationary period for new chapters, although such a policy might necessitate a constitutional amendment. Dr. LaSota moved to accept the report and the Committee’s motions. Bill Potter seconded. Motion passed.

26. Strategic Planning Committee Report. Dr. Havlak gave this report, given that Dr. Lindblom had been chair of this Committee and had concluded his term on the Council. The Strategic Planning Committee met in Louisville in June 2016, just prior to the Executive Committee meeting. At that meeting, the Committee generated a strategic plan that will stand for five years. The Committee identified immediate, short-term, long-term, and ongoing objectives. The Committee met again during this convention and assessed progress toward these objectives.

One issue the Committee discussed was potentially partnering with high school honor societies. The Committee moves to explore the possibility of partnerships with high school and/or freshman or two-year college honor societies. This motion passed.

Mr. Potter moved to accept the report. Dr. Mahan seconded. Motion passed.

27. Centennial Planning Committee (ad hoc) Report. Dr. Mahan, with the assistance of Mr. Carpenter, reported for this Committee. The Committee stated that the Council needs to identify the location of the 2022 national convention (the year of Alpha Chi’s centennial). The suggestion is that the convention might be in Austin, Texas, which is 30 minutes from Southwestern University, the birthplace of Alpha Chi. There is also a suggestion that the convention might be extended for that one year, with chapters coming in on Wednesday night and the actual centennial celebration occurring on Friday night of the convention. Other ideas included producing a commemorative plaque for placement on Southwestern University’s campus, a special centennial lapel pin (for either purchase or as the common lapel pin for members that year, etc.), and encouraging each chapter to hold a party or special campus event on February 22, 2022.

The Committee brought the following motions: A) the 2022 national convention will be held in Austin, Texas. B) the 2022 national convention will be extended to accommodate the centennial celebration. These motions passed. Mr. Potter moved to accept the entire report. Mr. Veit seconded. Motion passed.

28. Convention Committee Report. The student members on the Convention Committee were successful in finding a local children’s hospital for the donation of books from the national service project. A representative from Norton Children’s Hospital, Julie Krueer, attended the beginning of the closing gala to accept the books and speak briefly about their “Just for Kids” program.

The collaborative research project for the 2018 convention will be Climate Change and the Future. Dr. Clemente is working to secure a keynote speaker and a service project partner for the 2018 convention in Portland.

The national office staff requested that if the service project and convention theme are not secured by the Convention Committee by August 1 of the year prior to each convention, that the national office will have the authority to determine these. Dr. Kegley made this motion; Dr. Mahan seconded. Motion passed.

Ms. Noah and Julie Daniels of HelmsBriscoe have scheduled a site visit of two hotels in Cleveland, Ohio, in hopes of finding a suitable site for the 2019 convention. Ms. Noah reports that the cost of heavy hors d’oeuvres with the opening poster forum has become more expensive than a plated dinner like the closing gala, nearly doubling the food and beverage costs of the convention from when we just did one main meal and two continental breakfasts. Dr. Jones asked the Convention Committee to consider whether to suggest adjustments to the schedule regarding the current poster presentation event.

29. Convention Presentations Committee (ad hoc) Report. Prof. Pundt, chair of this Committee, stated that the Committee developed a new convention judging rubric which was used at this convention. One complication occurred when students didn’t use audio-visual supports, since effective use of AV is one of the judging criteria. The form will be amended to say that engagement with the audience will count as 20 points instead of 10 points when students don’t use audio-visual aids. The other issue is that some students don’t take questions at the end of their presentations, which is another judging criterion. One suggestion is that there should only be 10 minutes dedicated to the presentation and a mandatory two minutes dedicated to questions. Mr. Carpenter moved to accept the report. Dr. Mahan seconded. Motion passed.

30. New Business. Dr. Mills moved that any chapter that registered for this convention and was unable to attend because of weather issues be allowed to earn Star Chapter or Notable Chapter status, whichever designation they would have earned had weather not prevented their attendance. Dr. Rogers seconded. Motion passed.

When the online journal Aletheia began, it had been suggested that the editor be a member of the National Council. However, the current editor of Aletheia, Dr. Tim Lindblom, is no longer on the Council. The Council agreed, however, that they wish Dr. Lindblom to remain the editor. Dr. Mahan then moved that the Aletheia editor’s travel expenses be reimbursed for travel to the national convention the same way that the travel expenses of Council members are handled. Mr. Carpenter seconded. Motion passed.

Dr. Deka moved that the editor of Aletheia become an ex-officio member of the Publications Committee. Dr. Hobbs seconded. Motion passed.

31. Executive Session. Dr. LaSota moved to give a 4% raise to national office staff and a 3% raise to the executive director. Mr. Carpenter seconded. Motion passed.

Dr. Rogers moved to give a $500 bonus to each member of the national office staff for their work to support the convention. Mr. Veit seconded. Motion passed.

Dr. Jones stated that the executive director is supposed to submit a report one month in advance of the annual National Council meeting. The procedure is then for the National Council to do an evaluation of the executive director prior to the annual meeting. Since Dr. Yarbrough only submitted the executive director’s report right before the National Council meeting this year, no formal evaluation had been done by the National Council for this year. The Council suggested that Dr. Yarbrough complete a self-evaluation by May 1, 2017, and then the National Council will conduct an evaluation prior to the Executive Committee meeting on July 21. The Executive Committee will determine at that meeting whether to rehire the executive director for the next year.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Lori Mills
National Council Secretary
1. The Executive Committee (Dr. David Jones, president; Dr. Bill Clemente, vice president; and Dr. Lori Mills, secretary) along with Executive Director Trisha Yarbrough and Director of Operations Lara Noah met in Portland, Oregon, on Saturday, July 22, 2017. The group met at 9:15 a.m. at the Hilton Portland Downtown, which will be the location for the 2018 Alpha Chi National Convention. All the members in the group arrived in Portland on Friday, July 21, with those members who arrived early enough (Dr. Jones, Dr. Mills, and Dr. Yarbrough) eating dinner together that night.

2. Convention and National Council Meeting Minutes – The National Council Meeting and 2017 Convention minutes had already been sent to the Executive Committee for comment. They will be emailed to the entire National Council for comment and approval. A convention services manager from the Hilton Portland Downtown, Ms. Raemie West, gave the group a tour from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. This included a tour of the ballrooms and meeting rooms that Alpha Chi will be using during next year’s convention.

3. Convention Recap of 2017 Louisville Convention. The weather-related issues that occurred in conjunction with the Louisville convention will now be considered when planning for future conventions.

4. Planning for 2018 Portland Convention. The committee discussed considerations for the schedule of next year’s convention. Some thought has been given to re-organizing the schedule to adjust to our meeting room space and to many chapters traveling long distances to attend the convention and moving from Central or Eastern time to Pacific time. One question is whether to do an opening banquet versus doing an opening poster session. We are having the invited speaker be the opening speaker and the distinguished alumnus presentation and talk during the closing awards session. So, we will probably have an opening banquet with a speaker followed by dessert and coffee during the poster session. The Convention Presentations Committee will need to consider how to award prizes, especially considering whether to award separate prizes for poster presentations. The distinguished alumnus has been secured for Saturday night, Dr. John Pistole from Anderson University, as has a keynote speaker for Thursday night, Jeff VanderMeer, an environmentalist and novelist. The theme for the convention will be Our Green Planet. Dr. Bill Clemente will work with the national office staff by mid-August to coordinate a national service project that can be done in conjunction with the convention. The Audit & Finance Committee will make a recommendation to the National Council within the next few weeks about travel and housing grants for the convention.

5. Planning for 2019 Cleveland Convention. The Director of Operations has signed a contract with the Hilton Cleveland Downtown. There are not many dining options very close to the hotel, but the meeting space and hotel are very attractive for the convention. The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame is within walking distance.

6. Future Convention Sites. Ms. Noah will be soliciting bids from cities such as Denver, Kansas City, Atlanta, Phoenix, and Pittsburgh. The group adjourned for lunch at noon.

7. National Council. The group reconvened after lunch at 1:45 p.m.

A. 2017-18 Committee Membership. David Jones distributed a list of tentative committee assignments he generated as National Council members sent him their committee preferences. The Executive Committee reviewed these assignments and revised committee membership as needed. These assignments will be emailed to National Council members soon.

B. Committee Charges. Awards & Honors Committee: Two Outstanding Chapter Sponsor Awards will continue to be awarded annually. The Executive Director will generate a list of approximately ten eligible sponsors and narrow that down to five nominees for the Awards & Honors Committee that will then choose winners for the two $200 awards. Notification will be sent this fall to all chapters regarding the new Patricia A. Williams Prize for Outstanding Chapter Member that can be awarded once annually by each chapter. The national office will create a form for chapters to submit so that a certificate can be prepared by the national office. Convention Committee: Nationwide Insurance will continue to fund awards for the Collaborative Research Competition for the 2018 convention. The ad hoc Centennial Planning Committee needs to decide how an update of the history of Alpha Chi will be handled and recommend a budget for its plan. While the Constitution seems to be in good shape, the ad hoc Constitution Committee needs to go through it, as well as the bylaws, to evaluate any changes that need to be made. The Chapter Development Committee should continue work on developing materials for individual chapters such as chapter officer training and a chapter manual or handbook.

C. Elections of Regional Officers. Student representatives in Regions II, IV, and VI, regional presidents and vice presidents in all regions, and secretary-treasurers in Regions I and V will need to be elected at the 2018 convention. Each region will determine how it wants to conduct its elections and make that known to its chapters—whether they want to take nominations from the floor and/or have students and faculty submit their nominations before the convention, etc.

8. Executive Director’s Report. Dr. Yarbrough had posted her report in the committee’s Dropbox. She highlighted several points from that report, including a proposal that Alpha Chi participate as a sponsor in the National Collegiate Honors Council (NCHC) conference, which will be held in Atlanta, Nov. 8-12, 2017. Specifically, Dr. Yarbrough recommends that Alpha Chi be a “copper” sponsor, which involves a $2,500 fee. This will cover Dr. Yarbrough’s conference registration fee, recognition of Alpha Chi in the print program and the mobile app, and a link to the Alpha Chi website on the conference website. Dr. Yarbrough also suggested that Alpha Chi hold a reception for current Alpha Chi sponsors attending that conference, as well as faculty members from prospective institutions.
VisionPoint had recommended that Alpha Chi market itself at this conference due to many of the attendees being honors program directors and decision-makers regarding the presence of honor societies on their campuses. The Executive Committee recommends that, to increase Alpha Chi’s brand awareness, Dr. Yarbrough be authorized to market Alpha Chi, in conjunction with the VisionPoint marketing plan, at the 2017 NCHC conference.

Dr. Yarbrough also spoke about VisionPoint’s Year Two proposal. The cost of this proposal is $202,000. Over $135,000 of that cost is for a new induction management system, given that we now have a redesigned website and need to embed the induction management system within this. This will allow us to have greater security of our students’ information and ownership of the system. Right now, we have no way of updating the system, so we would either have to create a new induction management system or buy the license back from the current company and then still recreate it ourselves. Right now, we are doing business with the company that created the induction management system without a contract. The Executive Committee will soon send the VisionPoint Year Two Plan to the National Council for a vote.

Dr. Yarbrough reported on Alpha Chi’s involvement with the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS). While she was unable to attend the annual meeting in February, she attended its executive board meeting in May. She reported that the ACHS is pursuing a “service mark,” which would be similar to a trademark, in that honor societies who meet certain requirements would be eligible to display this service mark for a set annual fee.

Dr. Yarbrough has been serving on the executive board of ACHS. Her term is up this year, but the board president has asked her to continue to serve on the executive board. Dr. Yarbrough asked whether the executive committee approved of her continuing to serve in this way. Serving on the ACHS board requires attendance at a spring board meeting for which Alpha Chi’s pays travel and housing expenses. The committee discussed this and agreed that it is advantageous for Alpha Chi to have Dr. Yarbrough on the executive board of ACHS.

Dr. Yarbrough also suggested that Alpha Chi send a survey to institutions that have Alpha Chi chapters, asking them if they have freshman/sophomore honor societies and if they already have partnerships with these societies. She will then consider how to coordinate with these societies.

9. Re-hiring of Executive Director. The Executive Committee agreed to rehire the executive director until the 2018 National Council meeting.

   A. Process for Evaluation. The executive director will submit her annual report one month in advance of the 2018 National Council Meeting. This will be emailed to all National Council members, who will also be asked to complete an evaluation of the executive director in advance of the meeting. These evaluations will be discussed at the council meeting, so that the council can give the executive director feedback and make an informed decision about hiring her for the next year.

10. Director of Operation’s Report. Ms. Noah distributed a written report. She reported that Region VI had recently sent $4,000 to the national office to endow two convention presentation prizes in honor of former chapter sponsors and national council members Dr. Ann Kneavel (economics) and Dr. Margaret FitzGerald (political science).

    Ms. Noah has begun work on the 2018 convention and has emailed a speaker’s agreement to upcoming keynote speaker Jeff VanderMeer. The national office will work on national service project plans if such information is not sent to the national office by August 15. Based on feedback, planning complications, and food costs, Ms. Noah suggested that we go back to a plated opening dinner with coffee and dessert served during the poster forum to follow. A brief meeting for judges/presiders would take place right before the banquet.

    Ms. Noah reported that Aletheia operations continue to progress, with about 40 papers currently in progress. She reported that we currently pay $1,200 per month in office rent, which averages to approximately $16 per square foot per year. She brought several flyers regarding office spaces for lease in Little Rock, as examples of available properties to consider for a possible office move to Little Rock in 2018. Several leasing options have been found in a similar price range per square foot. Given the likelihood of such a move occurring within the next year, the national office will delay the search for a new auditing firm for 2019, as there will be many more firms to choose from in Little Rock.

    Lastly, Ms. Noah reported that Alpha Chi’s checking account balance was currently at $116,000. There is $74,000 to be paid out in scholarships soon and another $80,000 due to VisionPoint by the end of 2017. In August of 2016, we pulled the 2014 endowment draw, and the 2015 draw was pulled in December 2016. Ms. Noah advised that the 2016 draw needed to occur in the next month, with an additional one-time draw potentially needed in the spring of 2018 for expenses contained in the Year Two marketing plan. Thus, the Audit & Finance Committee will recommend authorization of an additional amount up to $100,000 in a spring 2018 draw, if needed to help with cash flow.

This concluded the business of the Executive Committee. Dr. Jones adjourned the meeting at 4:45 p.m.

2. Treasurer’s Report: Karl Havlak, Region I Secretary-Treasurer, circulated copies of the report showing Region I had total assets of $149,078.46 as of 12-31-2016. Karl Havlak also reported that investment holdings realized small gains for the year. Total cost to Region I for the 2016 National Convention (including scholarships) was $26,800.

3. 2015 Minutes: The minutes from the 2016 meeting in Alexandria were circulated and approved.

4. Scholarship Recipients: The $250 Chapter Scholarship winners that had been designated prior to the business meeting were announced. The $1000 Region I Convention Undergraduate Scholarship winners and the Region I Undergraduate Scholarship winner were announced. Karl Havlak indicated that the list winners of all awards at the convention would be sent to all Region I sponsors.

5. Star Chapter and Notable Chapter Recipients: Karl Havlak recognized all Star Chapter recipients from Region I: Abilene Christian University, Midwestern State University, Texas Lutheran University, Texas State University, University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, University of Texas at El Paso, and Wayland Baptist University. Angelo State University was recognized as a Notable Chapter recipient.

6. Region I Student Representative to the National Council: Outgoing representative Katy Cox Maddux gave an overview of the duties of the position. Nominees for Katy’s replacement will be accepted at the business meeting on April 8.

7. Presidential Cup: Karl Havlak explained the President’s Cup competition and encouraged chapters to seek nomination to participate in next year’s competition. Abilene Christian University and Texas State University are already under consideration for the 2017 award and each gave a brief overview of their chapter’s activities.

8. Region I Funding Information: Karl Havlak distributed information regarding regional rebates for future conventions. Discussion on the issue will continue in the April 8th business meeting.

9. Karl Havlak adjourned the meeting at 10:00 a.m.

10. Call to order (Session II): Jodi Pilgrim, President, called the meeting to order at 8:04 a.m., on April 8 in the McCreary room of the Galt House Hotel.

11. Sponsor Introductions: Sponsors were asked to introduce themselves so that they could be recognized.

12. Scholarship Winners: Scholarship winners who were not in attendance at the first business meeting due to flight cancellations were recognized. Additional chapter scholarship winners who were designated after the first business meeting were also recognized.

13. President’s Cup Nominee: The Texas State University chapter received the nomination to represent Region I in the 2018 President’s Cup competition.

14. Region I Funding Discussion: Karl Havlak presented the funding proposal for Region I, which was proposed by the Executive Committee.

   A. Proposal:

      i. Travel Subsidy: $500 for the first two delegates, $250 per delegate for up to 3 more delegates ($1750 maximum per chapter)

      ii. Scholarships: Three $500 regional scholarships ($1500 total) for undergraduate students attending the convention (it is also proposed that the scholarships be open to all Region I students who are presenting at the convention and not limited to two applicants from each chapter); no chapter scholarships.
iii. Under this proposal, it is projected that the treasury will have sufficient funds to fund travel and scholarships through the 2025 convention.

B. Norm Beck asked to amend the proposal to increase the number of scholarships to six $500 scholarships. With the change, the regional treasury would likely be able to fund travel through the 2024 convention. The amendment was accepted, and the proposal was accepted by the region.

15. Table Discussions: Jodi Pilgrim asked chapters to mingle with other chapters as they discussed a table prompt. Each table reported one item of interest to the whole group after the discussions.

16. Jodi Pilgrim adjourned the meeting at 8:45 a.m.

   - Southern Methodist University
   - Texas A&M University – Texarkana
   - University of Arkansas at Monticello
   - University of Central Arkansas
   - University of North Texas
   - University of Texas at Tyler

3. Approval of the 2016 Minutes – The minutes from the 2016 Region II Business meeting held in Alexandria, Virginia, were distributed (along with the Financial Report) prior to the convention by email, and during the business meeting; approved unanimously.

4. Treasurer’s Report – The 2016 financial report for Region II was accepted unanimously as submitted.

5. Star Chapter Awards - Eleven chapters from Region II received the award for 2015-16:
   - East Central University, Oklahoma Gamma (Christine Pappas)
   - Lyon College, Arkansas Iota (Nikki Yonts)
   - Oklahoma Christian University (John Harrison, Travis Montgomery)
   - Oklahoma City University (Tony Stancampiano)
   - Ouachita Baptist University, Arkansas Beta (Lori Hensley)
   - Southern Methodist University, Texas Alpha Omega (Thomas Tunks)
   - Texas A&M University – Texarkana (Doug Julien)
   - University of Arkansas at Monticello, Arkansas Zeta (Kate Stewart)
   - University of Central Arkansas, Arkansas Gamma (Amber Wilson)
   - University of North Texas, Texas Eta (Jeanne Tunks)
   - University of Texas at Tyler, Texas Alpha Xi (Suzanne Pundt)

6. Committee Reports
   - Outstanding Chapter Nominees –
     - Ouachita Baptist University and The University of Arkansas at Monticello are the Region II nominees for the 2017 competition (Jeanne Tunks, Amber Wilson, and Linda Thompson served on the nominating committee)
     - The University of North Texas, and Ouachita Baptist University intend to compete in 2018
   - Region II Student Representative Jace Bradshaw’s Report – Jace provided the Regional delegates with a summary of recent National Council topics, including the new Strategic Plan, the Visionpoint marketing plan, the national office move from the Harding campus into a building in Searcy (with possible plans to relocate to Little Rock by 2018), and the installation of two new chapters. He then reminded delegates that a new student representative will be elected at next year’s convention in Portland, Oregon, and explained the duties of the office.
   - Audit Committee (Kate Stewart, Tom Tunks, and Jeanne Tunks) examined the financial records of Region II and found them to be in good order. They recommended acceptance of the Financial (Treasurer’s) Report as submitted.
   - Gaston Scholarship Committee (Lori Hensley and Suzanne Pundt) recommended that Hannah Templin from Lyon College be awarded the 2017-18 Region II Scholarship. Jasmine Brock from Harding University is the first alternate.
   - Pryor Fellowship Committee (Anthony Stancampiano, Tom Tunks, and Jeanne Tunks) recommended that Hunter Edwards from Oklahoma Christian be awarded the 2017-18 Region II Fellowship. Cody Austin Bijou from the University of Arkansas at Monticello is the first alternate, and Keeley Wooten from Lyon College is the second alternate.
     - Delegates voted to award the first alternate in each category a $100 stipend.

7. Old Business
   - A summary of the regional procedure changes initiated last year are as follows:
     - Regional rebates would be discontinued immediately
ii. Regions would continue paying travel reimbursements and scholarships until their funds ran out.

iii. The National Council would then raise travel reimbursements to offset the reimbursements paid previously at the regional level; amount to be determined by the Audit and Finance committee of the National Council.

iv. Regional scholarships would also be paid in an amount to be determined by the Audit and Finance committee of the National Council.

• Procedure for determining Region II nominees for the Outstanding Chapter Award each year:
When more than two chapters express an interest in competing, a committee will be appointed at the convention which will be made up of three faculty sponsors from chapters that are not competing. Annual reports from the three most current years will be sent to the committee members via the regional president and secretary / treasurer, and the committee will then choose the two regional nominees. This process should be completed by August 1 of each year to allow the nominees the full fall semester for activity planning.

8. New Business – Region II President Lori Hensley will be leaving Ouachita Baptist University and the end of this term. She will be unable to attend next year’s convention unless the region provides funding, because her new university (Jacksonville State) does not have an Alpha Chi chapter. The alternative would be to elect a new regional president at this meeting. Delegates voted unanimously to pay for Dr. Hensley’s travel to the 2018 convention in Portland, Oregon, with an expenditure of approximately $1000.

9. Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Suzanne Pundt
Region II Secretary-Treasurer

Region III Report

Minutes

1. Region III President John McLaughlin called the meeting on April 7 to order at 9:15 a.m. Attending chapters: Bluefield College, Carson-Newman University, Catawba College, Chowan University, Christian Brothers University, Erskine College, Florida College, Freed-Hardeman University, Gardner-Webb University, Greensboro College, Lander University, Lipscomb University, Mars Hill University, Martin Methodist College, Milligan College, Shorter University, Tennessee Wesleyan College, University of North Carolina at Pembroke

2. The meeting minutes from the April 8-9, 2016 Convention in Alexandria, VA were unanimously approved as presented.

3. President McLaughlin recognized and welcomed Sarah Giles to the front. Ms. Giles is the outgoing Region II NC representative. She spoke about her experience serving as the student representative. McLaughlin thanked for her past participation and reminded all the position was for 2 years.

4. Election of new student representative for Region III. McLaughlin noted there was little response to his emails (to Region III chapter sponsors) requesting nominations for the position. Two candidates were present: Hannah Ray (Gardner-Webb) and Kayla Avery (Shorter University). After a brief speech from both candidates, Avery was elected as the new NC student representative for Region III.

5. Treasurer report. Secretary/Treasurer Mahan presented a financial report for the 2016 Region III cash receipts, disbursements and investment activity (see attached). There were no questions of or changes to the report as presented. Mahan noted the cash from the Region III mutual fund investments was not yet available (once the order to sell a mutual fund is placed, it takes several days before the funds are available). Therefore the 2017 subsidy checks could not be issued at the convention. Mahan indicated checks would be issued within 2 weeks of the convention.

6. 2017 Region III scholarship awards. Vice-president Kathi Vosevich announced the following winners:
   a. Undergraduate winners:
      i. Sarah Spaulding (Carson-Newman)
      ii. Christian Jessup (Gardner-Webb)
   b. Graduate winners:
      i. Melanie Smith (Greensboro College)
      ii. Michael McLawhorn (Mars Hill)

7. Star Chapters. President McLaughlin announced the following Alpha Chi Region III Star chapters for 2017: Belmont University, Carson-Newman University, Catawba College, Chowan University, Christian Brothers University, Gardner-Webb University, Lander University, Lipscomb University, Milligan College, Shorter University, University of North Carolina at Pembroke, William Carey University

8. The two nominees for the 2018 outstanding chapter award are Shorter University and Gardner-Webb University.

9. Senior Plans. President McLaughlin called on graduating seniors to stand and announce their plans after graduation.

10. With no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:00 a.m.

[Note: there was a second Region III meeting scheduled for Saturday April 8, 2017. No official business was conducted and any graduating seniors who did not speak at the previous meeting were invited to stand and tell of their plans.]

6. Region IV Scholarship Recipients:
   - Dr. Henry created a rubric with more specific criteria to facilitate the judging of the scholarship and guidelines for students. Moving forward we can use those guidelines and rubric.
   - Dr. Henry thanked reviewers who each reviewed four papers. Each paper had two reviewers. Scholarships were determined on the scores from the reviewers. If sponsors have any suggestions about the rubric, let Dr. Henry know. She notes that the rubric is general to apply to many different disciplines. She is open to suggestions.
7. President’s Cup Nominees (region can nominate one per every 20 chapters in the region): Nominees will complete materials throughout the year and President’s Cup will be awarded at the next convention.
   - Dr. Henry described the criteria. Linda Leavitt nominated Lindenwood University. Michael Collins nominated Hastings College. Kelsey Perry nominated Columbia College.
   - Dr. Henry suggests examining applications from former winners to gauge how to fill out applications and guidelines. David Jones suggests contacting Evangel University.

The second meeting at the conference will include a coffee and conversation meeting at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday. Attendees will have the opportunity to network with other universities. We will be pairing with a marketing firm and Ethan took a selfie at our Friday Region IV meeting to increase our presence on social media.
10. Treasurer’s Report: Teddi Deka discussed how our region has no funds and our treasury is now turned over to National. All other treasuries will eventually be turned over to National. All other treasuries have not changed, and we are actually able to offer a higher amount for regional scholarships - $1000 total, as noted by David Jones.
11. Reimbursements: Regions are instructed to fill out the forms which were passed out at the meeting and turn in on Saturday. If the students missed a day, fill out the sheet as if you did not miss a day and note this on the form. Overall, the region felt comfortable with the changes in the treasury and the reimbursements. A question was posed whether we will eventually go to a national form. Teddi Deka suggested that it will probably go that way but it is not known.
13. Aletheia: Dr. Henry encouraged students to submit to our journal, Aletheia.
14. Meeting adjourned at 10:00 a.m.

1. Called to Order at 8:15 a.m.

2. Members present: CSU Bakersfield (Vice President Dr. Jacquelyn Kegley), California Baptist University (Jeffrey Barnes), University of La Verne (Jeffrey Kahan), Hawai‘i Pacific University (Dr. Bill Potter), Grand Canyon University (Thomas Varkey), and Fresno Pacific University (President Dr. Marshall Johnston and Dr. Nathan Carson).

• Fresno Pacific – Marshall Johnston reported that their institution has had a President and Provost change. The chapter initiated nominations for the most inspirational professors. Under the new President Jones, they have combined Honors.

• CSUB – Reported that they plan to continue with their Candlelight ceremony, although there were some safety objections. The chapter participated with a room at Rowdy Con, they joined with other Honors programs in Philosophy, English, and Accounting. At the fall Rowdy Runner Night, the California Iota chapter had a booth entitled “Are you Smarter than Rowdy?” This was a contest and the English, History, Philosophy, and Accounting Honors all contributed questions and prizes.

• Hawai’i Pacific – Reported that they had initiated new members at Aloha Tower. They do their candles outside, but it tends to be too windy. They always have a faculty speaker.

• Grand Canyon – Reported they have an Honors College with two Honors Societies. They are glad to be back after 12 years. They had a large induction ceremony with over 700 plus imitates.

• Cal Baptist – Reported that they inducted over 100. The provost is always invited. They hold a social event several weeks before induction.

• LaVerne – Reported that has 120 initiates out of 300 plus invites. They found that when they accidentally raised fees, it did not make difference in numbers.

• Many schools are now doing two inductions – LaVerne did not find it made a difference in attendance.

5. Financial support

NOTE 6 - RETIREMENT PLAN

The entity provides pension benefits for all of its full-time employees through the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association College Retirement Equities Fund (the "Plan"). The Plan is a multi-employer defined contribution plan and is administered by the Society. The Plan was established during 1997 and is authorized and may be amended by the entity's National Council.

In a defined contribution plan, benefits depend solely on amounts contributed to the plan, plus investment earnings. The plan allows salaried employees to contribute up to 7% of their base salary and the entity matches up to 7% of the salaried employee's base salary. Hourly employees may contribute up to 5% and the entity will match up to 5%.

The entity's total payroll in fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 was $231,218.34. The entity's contributions were calculated using the base salary amount of $183,737.07. Contributions to the plan were $11,926.25 and $11,924.35 by the employee and the entity, respectively.
Alpha Chi
2017 National Convention in Louisville!
April 6-8
Distinguished Alumnus 2017
Dr. Ed Madden

Dr. Ed Madden is an Alpha Chi success story. After being inducted into Alpha Chi in 1984 while earning his BA in English and French at Harding University in Arkansas, he went on to win a national scholarship, attend and present at a national convention, and have a paper published in the Recorder. He then continued his education at the Institute for Christian Studies in Austin, Texas, earning a BS in Biblical Studies. At the University of Texas at Austin he received his master’s and PhD, bringing to full circle his quest for learning. However, one can quickly see that Madden continues to be an avid learner and thinker, enriching the lives of those around him.

Born and raised on a rice and soybean farm in rural Arkansas, Madden is a professor in the department of English Language and Literature at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, where he also serves as the director of Women’s and Gender Studies. Additionally, he is the current Poet Laureate of the city of Columbia, and he participates in activities throughout each year that engage schools and the public in the literary arts and poetry. His areas of specialization include late 19th- and 20th-century British and Irish poetry, Irish culture and literature, gender studies, gay and lesbian literature, creative writing, and poetry. In 2006 he was given the Legacy Award by the Human Rights Campaign of the Carolinas. The ways in which he inserts Alpha Chi’s motto of “making scholarship effective for good” into daily life are myriad.

Madden presented "How to Lift Him" at TEDxColumbiaSC in 2014 and is the author of four poetry books—Signals, which won the 2007 South Carolina Poetry Book Prize, Prodigal: Variations, Nest, and Ark, published in March 2016. His poetry chapbook My Father’s House was selected for the Seven Kitchens Press Editor’s Series. His poems have appeared in The Book of Irish American Poetry, Best New Poets 2007, and in journals such as Prairie Schooner, Crazyhorse, Poetry Ireland Review, and the Los Angeles Review. Dr. Madden will address convention delegates in Louisville in April.

2017 Gala Speaker
Dr. John Janovy, Jr.

Dr. John Janovy is slated to deliver "Life Lessons from a Parasite" as the keynote address at the closing Gala of the annual convention April 8, 2017, in Louisville. As an award-winning writer, professor, researcher, as well as a lively and energetic speaker, Janovy’s career of observing closely prepares him well to attract students and faculty alike. He notes, for example, that for parasites "what you’re born with dictates how you manage" and prods that further to wonder "a worm can be constrained, but can a person?"—pushing the question to ponder the human, global connotations for us all.

Now a professor emeritus, Janovy retired from the Paula and D. B. Varner Distinguished Professorship in Biological Sciences at the University of Nebraska Lincoln. His research focused on parasitology, particularly parasite ecology and life cycles. He also directed the Cedar Point Biological Station for 13 years total, teaching Field Parasitology there and finding some of his most fertile ground for research and those life lessons.

Among Janovy’s teaching experiences, he always includes his career-long commitment to freshman, large-enrollment biology courses as well as supervision of undergraduate and graduate researchers. He says that the most rewarding aspect of his teaching career is seeing his students "make good," from first-year students doing short projects to doctoral students completing theses, and the reward for a scholar is still hearing from them years later, after they have graduated.

His honors include the University of Nebraska Distinguished Teaching Award, State of Nebraska Pioneer Award, University Honors Program Master Lecturer, American Health Magazine book award (for Fields of Friendly Strife), University of Nebraska Outstanding Research and Creativity Award, The Nature Conservancy Hero recognition, Nebraska Library Association Mari Sandoz Award, and the American Society of Parasitologists Clark P. Read Mentorship Award.

Janovy’s academic works include articles, textbooks, manuals, software, and the field manual Keith County Journal. His creative works include four academic mystery novels. He also composes science fiction, film scripts, and the quite popular Outwitting College Professors, a college success book, now in its 5th edition. This series, an expansion of his syllabus advice, grew out of his Friday afternoon coffee with students in the lab.

The 2017 Collaborative Research Prize is proudly sponsored by Nationwide Insurance.
The lesson that night
BY ED MADDEN

How hot it was that sun-beat week, watering the yard every day,
the curled leaves and dry ground,
green wings of zinnia breaking the soil.
They sat together around a green table, prayed, sang, then opened the gospel—
the lesson that night was seed sown on stony ground. What can we know of the human heart, entangled in all that we’ve been taught? A boy from here sat with them about an hour, then aimed his hate and opened fire.

How quick we were to act,
focused on that festering flag,
quick to take it down and move forward, move on—these aren’t the same.
After weeks of heat, it rained the day
the governor said to take it down.
Are we somehow different now?
How would we know?

We furled a flag. We furled a flag.
A girl was slung across a room,
a man who ran shot in the back.
The broke and broken schools remain.
What has changed, beyond that square of empty sky where it once flew,
the opened door of clouds and blue?

The lesson that night was stony ground.
Not birds, not thorns, not the good soil.
What grows up quick among the stones.
What has no roots, what withers away.
A friend calls change a perennial plant.
A second year takes nurture and luck.
If it comes back another year,
a better chance that it will stay.
Water well the just-sown and just-up.
Water long in morning light.
Water long and soak the roots to learn the lesson of that night.
Learn the lesson of that night.

On June 17, 2016, Madden’s poem, “The lesson that night,” ran on the front page of The State newspaper, a year to the day that a shooter killed nine black churchgoers during a Bible study at Mother Emanuel Church, the oldest AME historic church in the South. Dr. Madden was asked to write and perform the work for the Charleston event “The Holy City: Art of Love, Unity and Resurrection.”

Making a "Killing" with Fundraising

Dr. Kip Wheeler, Rebecca Nichols, Chris Justice, Tennessee Delta at Carson-Newman University

"Having trouble raising cash for AX? This session will highlight one chapter's successes and failures in hosting an interactive campus version of a "Mastermind Assassin Game," an engaging simulation, to put the fun back in fundraising."

Morrow

Using Social Media to Strengthen Your Alpha Chi Chapter

Dr. Christine Pappas, Oklahoma Gamma Chapter at East Central University

"In this interactive workshop, you will receive tips and techniques for using social media such as Facebook and Twitter to strengthen your chapter. Topics will include increasing communication among officers, promoting events, and increasing the chance that invitations for membership will be accepted."

Involving Online Students in Your Chapter

Dr. Jennifer Huddleston, Megan Miller, Texas Psi Chapter at Abilene Christian University

"Online students can be active members of your chapter! Chapters will learn how to implement strategies to encourage online student membership, virtual induction attendance, scholarship applications, convention attendance, and virtual attendance at chapter activities, including community service projects. This interactive session will also include collaboration on how to include online students in Alpha Chi chapters in meaningful ways."

The 259-Day Plan: The Art of Fundraising at a Small University

Dr. Syble Shellito, North Carolina Phi at Chowan College

"Fundraising at a small university can feel like a hair-raising experience instead of a money-raising endeavor. The productive space between the two can be found with diligence and planning. Come experience how one chapter raises enough money to bring 20 students to convention!"

The First Impression: Creating a Superior Experience through Induction Activities

Dr. Lorene Pagcailwagan, AJ Horner, Matt Autrey, Mariah Case, Connor Bos, Christopher Lile, Rebekah Rhea, North Carolina Zeta at Gardner-Webb University

"It's been said that a person's opinion of an organization is generated by its first impression. For an academic honor society, the tapping and induction activities serve as a member's introduction to the organization. We'll explore successful strategies and implementation of tapping and induction activities for Alpha Chi, using both hands-on activities and testimonies of what worked for us."

Beckham

Peer Prominence and Public Pomp: Strengthening Invitations and Inductions for Small Chapters

Dr. Steve Hoekstra, Kansas Delta Chapter at Kansas Wesleyan University

"We will share our recent experiences and explorations of different ways to invite students to join Alpha Chi—some successful and some not as much. We will share some aspects of induction that have improved a sense of ceremonial pride for our chapter. We'll end with an idea swap between attendees for new and creative ways to elevate the visibility of Alpha Chi on campuses looking for active new members."

<td>Two measures of chapter success are the percentage that accept membership invitations and the number involved in chapter activities. We will show how both the invitation process and the induction ceremony form this foundation for success. We’ll share our experiences, examine successful and less successful strategies, and elicit an exchange of ideas from all participants. Collective wisdom will strengthen our understanding of what creates a robust, engaged chapter.</td>
